—At the home of the bride's parents, near Oakway, on Sunday last, January 19th, B. E. Martin, of Fair Play, and Miss Mattie B. Richardson, of Oakway, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock. It was a very quiet home wedding and a most happy occasion. Only a few of the intimate friends of the bride and groom were present. The bride's pastor, Rev. H. C. Hester, officiated. This happy couple will live near Earle's Grove church, on the groom's farm. They begin their career as husband and wife with the best wishes and the heartiest congratulations from a host of friends.

—All the coal you want—good coal—$4.75 at mill, $5.75 delivered. Hetrick Hosiery Mills, Walhalla, ad.

—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Schiff will regret to learn that they will leave Walhalla next week. They have decided to make their home at Bristol, Conn., where Mrs. Schiff's sister, Mrs. P. C. Stark, with her family, is residing. Mr. Schiff and Mr. Stark will engage in business in Bristol together, the latter having been in business there for a number of years. Mr. and Mrs. Schiff expect to leave here Wednesday or Thursday of next week. We join with many other friends in hoping for their every success in their New England home.

—Married, on Sunday, January 19th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sloan, in the Salem section, Miss Bessie Sloan and C. E. Alexander. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Nicholson. The young couple have the best wishes of a wide circle of friends.

—Mrs. I. H. Harrison expects to leave to-morrow for Spartanburg to visit the family of Dr. D. L. Smith, and during her stay there she will be under treatment by Dr. Smith. She has been in poor health for quite a while, and many friends here hope that she may soon be restored to health.

—T. E. Alexander left last Sunday morning for Oklahoma to visit his brother, F. P. Alexander, Esq., who is seriously ill. Mr. Alexander went West a number of years ago and has become one of the prominent and prosperous men of his adopted home at Salisaw, Okla. We hope to hear news of Mr. Alexander's early recovery.

—Jas. C. Mulkey, who has for a number of years been engaged in farming and milling near West Union, has sold his farm lands and moved to the town of West Union, where he will engage in merchandising and milling. He will begin at an early date the erection of a store room and mill house on a lot near the West Union post office, which he has purchased. He sold his farm to J. L. Vaughn, of Greenville county, who is moving to the Mulkey place this week and will engage in farming. We extend to Mr. Vaughn and family a hearty welcome to Oconee.

—The Seneca Bank and the Westminster Bank will receive payments and give receipts to those who owe me, when it is not convenient for you to find my son, Wales Lowry. Please pay promptly. I cannot carry over any paper except as already agreed. (adv.) T. M. Lowery.

—W. H. Hester, of Spartanburg, spent last Sunday in Walhalla at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Julius Schiff. Mr. Hester left Monday morning for Bristol, Conn., where his youngest daughter, Mrs. F. C. Stark, is seriously ill. Mrs. Stark is pleasantly remembered here as Miss Willie Hester, and has many friends to whom the news of her illness will come as the source of deep regret. We join with them in the hope that she may soon be restored to health. Owing to Mrs. Stark's condition Mrs. Schiff expects to go to Bristol to-morrow instead of waiting until next week, when the family will move to that city.

—E. F. Cole, representing the land and industrial department of the Southern Railway, was in Walhalla for several days last week looking over conditions in Walhalla and in the country outlying. Mr. Cole's headquarters are in Columbia, he having recently assumed charge of this special branch of the Southern's work in this territory. He is familiarizing himself with conditions of the Piedmont section of the State for the information of the officials of the Southern, whose policy it is to boost and advertise the entire country traversed by its lines. Mr. Cole expects to return to this section later to make a more detailed study and report. He is a young man of pleasing address and made a number of acquaintances and friends during his short stay.

Items from Return.

Return, Jan. 21.—Special: Rev. L. M. Lyda filled his regular appointments at Return Saturday and Sunday. On Sunday he preached a very able sermon from Exodus 8:10. C. P. Dean and family, of Anderson, have moved to the Foster place. We are glad to have them in our community.

J. V. Crooks, of Ozark, Ala., is with homefolks at present.

Jesse Martin, of Hartwell, Ga., has purchased J. B. Duncan's farm near Return church. We welcome him and his to our community.

The Woman's Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. Oscar Thrasher next Saturday at 3 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

Here is a remedy that will cure your cold. Why waste time and money experimenting when you can get a preparation that has won a world-wide reputation by its cures of this disease and can always be depended upon? It is known everywhere as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and is a medicine of real merit. For sale by all dealers. adv.

WALHALLA
HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Quite an interesting program was carried out at the joint meeting of the Palmetto and Issaquena Literary Societies last Friday afternoon. A large number of friends and patrons of the school were present.

The debate, "Resolved, That the inauguration of the parcels post law by the Federal Government will benefit the inhabitants of the United States," was won by the affirmative side, represented by Frances Earle, Grace Beard and Edwin Hughes, on behalf of the Issaquena Society.

A preliminary contest, for the purpose of selecting a representative to the Oconee County Oratorical Contest, to be held at Westminster on the night of February 28, will be held in the Court House next Friday evening, January 24th. The speakers and their subjects are: Marion Moss, "The South and Her Problems" (Henry W. Grady), Luther Davis, "The Wrong Path" (Andrew Carnegie); Waddy Duncan, "The Spirit of Conquest" (Thomas Corwin). The meeting will begin at 8 p. m. There will be no charge for admission.

Miss Georgia Ray MacMillan, an impersonator, of Chattanooga, Tenn., will appear in the Court House on Friday evening, January 31. The proceeds will be given to the track teams of the high school. The program will be published next week.

Six Wounded in Feud.

Morganton, N. C., Jan. 21.—Six men were seriously wounded in a battle at Glen Alpine, a village six miles from here, according to reports reaching here. Revolvers and knives were used as weapons. The clash is said to have been the culmination of a feud between the Pitts and Hennessee families.

The seriously wounded are Dr. E. A. Hennessee, M. N. Hennessee, Abel Pitts, Gorman Pitts, Ervin Pitts and Sam Bennett. The three former are reported to be mortally wounded.

Dr. E. A. Hennessee, a prominent physician of Burke county, was one of the combatants, and was shot through the head and lungs and cannot live. M. N. Hennessee and Abel Pitts, two others engaged in the affair, are reported mortally wounded, while Gorman Pitts, Ervin Pitts and Sam Bennett, the latter the policeman of the village, are seriously, if not fatally shot. Others engaged in the affair are more or less seriously injured.

Anderson Farmers' Heavy Loss.

Anderson, Jan. 19.—The largest barn in Anderson county, belonging to Pat W. Major, a young farmer living five miles northeast of this city, was totally destroyed by fire last night, the losses, including a large portion of its contents, aggregating approximately $7,500, with insurance amounting to a little less than two-thirds of the full value. Five mules, worth about $1,200, and feed stuffs worth approximately $4,000, comprised the contents that were destroyed. The barn also contained 60 head of cattle and many other mules, but these were gotten out safely. It is supposed that the fire originated from spontaneous combustion.

Quick Parole for Stokes.

Orangeburg, Jan. 18.—Mack Stokes, the noted blind tiger who was given a sentence of five years in the General Sessions Court last Tuesday, has been paroled by Governor Bleas. Stokes was convicted during his absence several months ago, he having left while under bond and taken refuge in Augusta, Ga. The sheriff communicated with Governor Bleas and asked for requisition papers to bring Stokes back to be sentenced, but the Governor refused to issue them. Judge Rice filed a sealed sentence in the case. A few days ago Stokes returned to this city on his own initiative to hear his sentence, and, as was suspected, he was paroled in short order.

Surgeon in Two Wars Dies.

Greenville, Jan. 21.—News reached here yesterday of the death of Dr. W. A. Mooney at his home in the extreme upper section of the county last Saturday. He was born January 10, 1818, celebrating his 95th anniversary just one week prior to his death. He was a surgeon in both the Mexican war and the War Between the States.

Yeggmen Crack P. O. Safe.

Norwood, Ga., Jan. 18.—The post office safe was blown open here early this morning. About $150 was taken away by the robbers. The money consisted of $50 in bills and $100 in silver and pennies. It is thought that the robbers came in on the midnight express and did their work and went back in the direction of Canak, as a $1 bill was picked up on the Georgia railroad track this morning by the track walker just east of Norwood.
